

ATIPPA, 2015 Policy

Disregarding an Access Request

Policy

An application to the Office of the Information and Privacy Commissioner (OIPC) by a public body under section 21 of ATIPPA, 2015 to disregard an access request will be considered in accordance with the guidance document Applying to the Commissioner for Approval to Disregard Access Requests.

Purpose

This policy recognizes that individuals have a right to make access to information requests and this right should not be limited without careful consideration, and supports consistency when considering applications by public bodies.

Scope

This policy applies to all applications made by public bodies to disregard access requests.
